

Operation Youth Success School Based Arrest

Tuesday, April 26, 2016
4:00-5:30 pm

UNO Community Engagement Center

Operation Youth Success (OYS) meetings are opened to the public, not public meetings. All guests will sit in the designated areas and are not privy to working drafts including, but not limited to, brochures, worksheets, handouts or data not released to the public. Guest will be given the opportunity to introduce themselves and “sign-in”; this is optional and not required by OYS when attending our meetings. Agendas that do not contain working drafts or personal data may be shared with the public. In addition, the public may only make comments at the end of each meeting. Each individual is limited to three (3) continuous minutes. If any guest(s) have questions, they should be directed to the OYS Executive Director and submitted in writing.
