About Sanford Harmony

Sanford Harmony is a free, PreK – 6th Grade social emotional teaching program that helps teachers cultivate strong classroom relationships between all students. Sanford Harmony promotes positive interactions and experiences with diverse peers by breaking down the barriers to friendship and teaching important relationship skills. Researched and developed over seven years at Arizona State University, Harmony strategies, lessons and activities incorporate cognitive, affective, and behavioral competencies, including: self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision making. All needed curriculum materials come in an easy-to-use, well-organized teacher kit. Resources include the everyday practices of Meet Up and Buddy Up, and a set of thematic lessons, activities, storybooks and games that enhance discussions, decision-making, and problem solving.
